The Meridian Collection by Anna French

Meridian by Anna French is a gathering of refined fabrics, including alluring prints and plush wovens. Together they compose a collection with a nod to tradition with modern flair.

Newark, NJ -- Inspired by global travel and ancient trade, patterns in the Meridian Collection by Anna French include decorative ikats, batik motifs, and textural embroideries in soothing color palettes.

Lock Embroidery's raised metallic chain-stitch of interlocking geometric shapes shines on 100% linen ground.

Inspired by old cypress trees that grow on historic estates, Manor Embroidery is embroidered on 100% linen. The spaced layout of these darling cypress trees are a stand-out in all colorways.

The natural, organic shapes of Balin Ikat are quite charming and sophisticated.

The two-color, handsome motifs on Scottsdale Embroidery have a tribal-like look that makes for beautiful drapery fabric. The medallion can also be centered on a pillow.

Sterling Paisley is a 100% linen, reversible fabric. The large scale, delicate paisley has a medallion shape.

Amalfi's tight weave mimics needlepoint design. This small woven geometric has soft flax yarns that make it feel as soft as it looks a plush woven fabric a great companion pattern that pairs nicely with other fabrics.

Believe it or not, the shiny raised metallic ink pattern of Burmese is of hand painted artwork.

The hand-knotted, delicate details on French Knot Embroidery are perfectly spaced on this semi-sheer fabric.

Kanthas originated in the eastern states of India, where old saris and cloth scraps are stitched together to create thin throws used as blankets and cushions. This large ikat pattern has a tribal influence.

The looping circles in Watercourse are screen printed with pigment ink that lays overtop a watercolor-like background
