The Small Scale Collection by Anna French

Newark, NJ -- An array of nimble shapes and figures.

Look closely at the wallcoverings in Small Scale by Anna French and you'll find lively colored patterns sprinkled with visual interest, delicate textures, subtle movement and a hint of whimsy. Although petite in size, these designs create a sense of evenness while providing a sophisticated and graphic impression that won't overwhelm.

Bridle is an abstract geometric trellis that is oriental in nature, with perfectly balanced and flowing lines.

Taken from the matching print fabric in the Meridian collection by Anna French, the natural, organic shapes of Balin Ikat are quite charming and sophisticated.

The petite scalloped shapes of Spencer have art deco flair. This charming geometric design is sweet with a modern, retro feel.

Named after the village in North Carolina, Cashiers boasts picturesque views of the Blue Ridge Mountains, hence the name of this pattern with mountainous shapes printed on a vertical paperweave.

Legrelle is a true visual treat! Classic geometric shapes are laid out with expertly judged space. An innovative printing technique is used on 4 colorways with tiny, glistening beads, and 2 colorways are printed on a soft, natural cork.

An all-over dense pattern of scattered spots, Davis Dot is an intriguing and unusual design featuring repeating dots that glimmer with hints of metallic.

Sure to be popular among dog lovers, Baxter features the silhouettes of man's best friend in repeat.

A modern twist on an eye-catching contemporary trellis pattern, Leland Trellis features a finely drawn ogee trellis, set against a subtly textured ground.

Fairfield is an exuberant, small scale, soft-edged scallop motif.

Inspired by the matching embroidery in the Meridian collection by Anna French, the spaced layout of darling cypress trees in Manor are simple and refined.

The repetitive lattice design of this elegant, yet stylishly graphic fleur-de-lis shape is enticing in this small, usable scale. Arlin Trellis is a mesmerizing all-over geometric pattern that's interesting and bold but not overpowering.
